

To FCC: I believe that the State of Wisconsin's No-call list is the best in the country, In fact I wish the Fcc would follow thier example. Companies have other outlets to promote thier products such as the United states postal service. They do not need to call me with unsolicited products or services. If I want to use thier products or services I am sure I can find them. Please leave Wisconsin's No-call list alone!!! thank-you